

New name tri club on scene

AUSTRALIAN Crawl Triathlon club has changed its name to Burst Triathlon Club.

The new name was selected as it reflects energy and fun which is what the club represents.

The club trains at venues including Caboolture Pool on King Street, Deception Bay Leisure Centre and Burpengary Aquatic and Fitness Centre in Fountain Road, which also provides the use of their facilities for meetings.

The club has also changed its model rules to encourage membership from all locations as their membership base now spans from Gordon Park to the Sunshine Coast. Diggy Internet Services is providing the club with a web site which will online soon.
