

Forbes earns podium finish at police event

BURST Triathlon member Warren Forbes, who doubles as a police officer when not competing, finished third at the recent Police and Emergency Services Games in Coffs Harbour. He also won his age group and finished second overall in the cycling hill climb, but pulled out of the road race because of back spasms.